HILLTOPPER COACHING STAFF

ASST. COACH FRANK GRIFFIN

ASST. COACH TURNER ELROD

Their third victory in a row after dropping the first two ball games played this season, is the goal of the Hilltoppers tonight. Western got away to a slow start but is showing steady improvement as the season progresses. Coach Jack Clayton stated last week that the squad was beginning to show the form he had expected in the pre-season practice.

Injuries have hampered the Hilltoppers with Bob Eimer, Sonny Jones, Hal Taylor, Shirley Underwood and Gene Glod all on the sidelines out of the backfield. In the line Joe Talley and Nick Diachenko are sidelined with injuries.

The game tonight marks the first time Western has met Howard since 1942.

HILLTOPPER ENDS

DANNY FOWLKES

HENRY COWAN

TOM BATTLE

Shown above are three of the top Hilltopper reserve ends on whom Coach Jack Clayton depends when the veteran first string seniors, Frank Wallheiser and Jewel Browning, need relief. All three are big and tough and can adequately handle the end posts to keep the Western forward wall strong.

In addition they are fine pass receivers which keeps the Hilltopper aerial attack strong when the first stringers are out. Battle has been out with virus pneumonia but is expected to return to duty soon.

Cowan and Battle are juniors and will be back next year. Fowlkes is a senior.

Coach Clayton also has two highly promising freshmen ends who can do the job when called on. They are Bob Osborne from du Pont Manual in Louisville and Willie Watson from Princeton. Both have seen a lot of action already this season and next year Coach Clayton expects them to develop into really top notch performers.

Western Plays Howard For First Time Since 1941

Howard College, an invader from Birmingham, Ala., has been a frequent opponent on Western's football schedule since 1934. The two elevens have met five times previously with the Hilltoppers taking only one game, the Bulldogs three and one resulted in a 0-0 deadlock.

In 1941 when Howard last appeared as a Western gridiron opponent, the Bulldogs scored a 20-7 triumph in the Western stadium before a Dad's Day crowd of 3,000 fans. The Hilltoppers were unable to stop Jimmy Tarrant, one of the sparkiest sparkplugs ever to play on Western soil. He repeatedly circled the Western ends for nice gains, played brilliantly in the safety position, did a neat job of kicking and hit with 14 of his 24 bullet-like passes. The two schools have not met on the gridiron since then until tonight's game.

The first meeting came on Homecoming day, 1934. It was in this game that the 0-0 tie resulted. The following year found the Birmingham eleven back in the Western stadium for the Hilltoppers' Homecoming game. This time Western absorbed the worst licking in the history of Homecoming tilts by a 19-0 count.

In 1936 the Bulldogs eked out a 14-6 victory in a hard-fought ball game which was not decided until the final gun sounded. The following year found the two schools not playing each other but in 1938 they took up the gridiron battle again. This time the Hilltoppers came through with a 6-0 win, their only triumph to date registered over the southerners. The Bulldogs came in with a highly touted triple-threat man in Clyde White but the Hilltoppers never let him get loose.

Western's lone score came after Raymond VanMeter recovered a fumble by White. With Duke Dulaney tossing to Curly Pitman and George Bibich barreling through the line for long gains, Western went from the Howard 45-yard stripe to the three from where Bibich carried it over. Thus the Hilltoppers cracked into the winning column for the first time against the Bulldogs.

Howard and Western did not meet again until 1941 when the Bulldogs brought in another triple-threat man in Tarrant and he lived up to his advance notices with devastating results.

To date Howard has outscored Western 53 points to 19. Tonight's game will be the first time the current crop of Hilltopper gridders have had a crack at the Bulldogs. They will be trying to make the resumption of the meeting with Howard an auspicious one for Western with the difference in the points scored cut down and the string of Bulldog victories thoroughly snapped.

Howard was a football power among the smaller schools throughout the South before the war. This year marks the first season they have actively entered the football arena since the war and with the great victorious tradition built up during the thirties to urge them on the Bulldogs promise to be a potent threat to any team.

Western also carries a great victory heritage handed down by mighty Hilltopper teams since 1913. Both schools are seeking to re-establish the glory known before the war interrupted and called away some of their greatest stars. This year's meeting will bring together two ambitious teams surging for the heights once known to both.
